LOCAL NEWS. FRIDAY EVENING, JANUARY 17.

Dutt Times. - Affairs in Alexandria are ex ceedingly dull at present, and the labor of collecting and preparing local news is by no means light work. The river is frozen, there is not enough snow on the ground for sleighing, skating has been incommoded by the snow and the ice cutters, there are no more masquerade balls on the tapis, and the only preventive to an universal ennui is the political news from Washington. Fortunately oysters remain comparatively cheap, and the warming qualities of arrack punches have not abated.

ODD FELLOWS' VISIT.-Marley Encampment, No. 6, I. O. O. F., of this city, paid a fraternal visit last night, on a special train of cars, to their brethren of Mount Nebo Encamptest $2.50, with interest from July 28, 1861, till ment, of Washington. The visitors were escorted to and from the Odd Fellows Hall, in Washington, by the members or Mount Nebo Encampment, headed by a brass band. After a formal reception the Alexandrians were handsomely entertained with a sumptuous repast, and returned home, at half-past twelve o'clock, highly pleased with their visit.

THE STRASBURG EXTENSION. -Gov. Swann, in his late annual Message to the Maryland L'sislature, makes the following reference to the Strasburg Extension ::

"A contract has been made within a few weeks past for a perpetual lease of the indenendent Branch Road from Harper's Ferry to Winchester, furnishing a most valuable connection with the Valley of Virginia. With the same line extended to Strasburg, too much importance cannot be attached to this valuable acquisition."

COAL OIL LAMPS.—The improvement to coal oil lamps caused by allowing salt to remain in the bottoms, has heretofore been mentioned in the Gazette, but another recommendation to that manner of treating lamps is contained in a latter written to a western paper, which says: "1. All the gas created by the heat of the flames is consumed. 2. The flame is much brighter and clearer. 3. The oil burns away much slower. 4. It never explodes."

WATCH HOUSE LODGERS.—There were but two lodgers at the Watch House last nightone, Jennie Owins, the female impost r who was discovered here last week, and who was sent out of the city this morning; and the other a colored man, who stated that he was sent here by the agents of the Freedmen's Bureau in Leesburg, but as he claimd Richmond as his Knox, sr., and Robert F. Knox, late copartners,

THE RIVER. - The river is almost filled with ice, which is hourly increasing in thickness, and the channel, which has been kept open by the Aquia Creek steamers, is obstructed by the floes which the Northwest wind has driven from the Virginia Shore. The steamer Winnisimmet made two trips to Washington this morning. The Collyer is not attempting to run

ICE ON THE PAVEMENTS. - Walking on the side walks of some of the principal streets of the city is now rendered dangerous by the accumulation on them of ice formed by the freezing of the water from running hydrants, and many a perpendicular attitude yesterday and this morning were horizontalized in conse-

SKATING. - Though the late snow interfer d considerably with the sport on the skating grounds, the bracing diversion is still largely indulged in and among these most food of it, are some of the young ladies of this city, one of whem, however, unfortunately fell on the ice last Monday, and dislocated her shoulder.

COMPLAINT .- Complaint has been lodged at the Mayor's Office by the Potomac Ferry Company of the obstruction in the passage way to their wharf, at the King street dock, caused by the daily congregation there of idle colored men and boys, and the Mayor will take the proper steps to have the obstruction removed.

SPORT .- Considerable sport was afforded to a number of boys yesterday evening, on King street, between Royal and Pitt, by a chase after a turkey, whose flights among the tops of the three story buildings in that vicinity, equalled any ever performed by his brethren in the wild

RECOVERED. - Daniel Williamson, who was shot on Christmas Eve last, during a disturbance near Accotink, by Elias Grimsley, has recovered from the effects of the injury he received, Grimsley is held under bonds of price, by $2,000 for his appearance at court to answer

mitted to jail for a further hearing. DEMOREST'S .- From Mr. Geo. E. French's No. 95, King street, we have Demorest's Monthly Magozine for February, the contents
